Rockhouse Springs Ranch

The ranch encompasses more than 19,000 acres and is located 15 miles Southeast of Roswell, Chaves County, New Mexico. With several wide natural draws, the gentle, rolling plains of the ranch depict the beauty of Southeastern New Mexico.

The headquarters consists of a mobile home with a set of corrals, good fencing, and a livestock shed. It is watered by six solar powered wells, with approximately five miles of underground pipeline and eight storage tanks.

Predominate grasses are black and blue grama with some sideoats grama, and many more.
